

HOUT BAY BEACH COTTAGE

Delightful secure self-catering holiday cottage set in a quiet street 100 meters from Hout Bay beach in Cape Town. Perfect location; walk to the beach, shops, restaurants, supermarket and Hout Bay Harbour. The Cottage sleeps 6.

The beach cottage is set in a fully enclosed tropical garden, with lovely mountain views. The large palm tree with sparkling pool is the centre focus. The cottage is close to everything, yet far enough from the main road to enjoy the tranquillity of the beautiful private garden. Sunny, clean and well maintained with luxury comforts throughout, from top quality pure cotton bed linen with electric blankets for the cooler evenings to fans for the warmer summer days. This cottage has everything you need for a perfect holiday!

Open plan modern living with indoor wood-burning fireplace and easy flow from the kitchen to the lounge and dining area, with large French doors opening onto the garden and pool. The cottage is lovingly decorated in a trendy beach-style. Comfortable living area with contemporary white leather sofa/chairs and an elegant custom-made dining table with designer chairs imported from Italy (Kartell).

Modern equipment: IPOD docking station and a wall-mounted Plasma TV with satellite channels and PVR.

When the sun sets, the garden is lit from the tropical trees, creating a wonderful ambiance for alfresco dining or a South African barbecue.

The beach cottage is filled with personal touches and attention to detail to ensure a comfortable and enjoyable stay; such as books, board games, kid's corner with ample fun toys for kids, and much more! For families with small children we have a pool safety net, cot and a high chair available.

