

KALK BAY VIEWS

Open the windows and you can almost taste the sea. This 4 star TGCSA graded luxury villa is situated in the heart of Kalk Bay, a vibrant fishing village on the warm False Bay coast. Known for its colourful harbour, quaint cobbled streets and arty locals, Kalk Bay is one of the secret gems of the Western Cape. Wander down to your choice of trendy seaside restaurants, shops and bars - or simply savour mesmerising views from the comfort of the masterpiece lounge, sundowner in hand.

Designed by award-winning architect Macio Miszewski, Bishop's View boasts 4 spacious bedrooms all with satellite TV, an entertainer's lounge/dining area with wood burning fireplace and world-class kitchen. A wood and glass yoga studio and steam room completes the picture. Expect contemporary elegance at its very best. Watch your children play in the park across the road from the balcony. Watch for fishing boats returning to the harbour then stroll down and buy fresh off the boats.
