Hout Bay Area Information

Hout Bay is one of the most beautiful and popular places on the Cape Peninsula and a highlight of any visit to Cape Town, just 20 minutes' drive to Cape Town city centre and 10 minutes from the Constantia's Wine Route.

The beautiful long beach, fine seafood restaurants and numerous art galleries provide something for everyone. Hout Bay has character and charm with a wonderful balance between the old and new, with a rich history and a modern pace.

Set at the foot of the famous Chapman's Peak mountain, this village has its own working harbour that is the home of the tuna, snoek and crayfish fleets. Choose your own 'catch of the day' from the fish market or take a boat trip to Seal Island.
